

Venue Reading Accommodation Terms & Conditions

21-11-2023

These are the terms and conditions that apply when you book a room with Venue Reading at the University of Reading ('Accommodation') using any official reservation channels by phone, email, in person, using our online booking service or through Booking.com ('Reservation Channels'). The terms and conditions of this contract are between you, the customer, and us, The University of Reading an independent corporation with charitable status established by Royal Charter with number RC000665, whose administrative offices are at Whiteknights House, Whiteknights, PO Box 217, Reading, RG6 6AH, United Kingdom (the 'University')

When you receive an email confirmation from us regarding the booking, you made via a Reservation Channel, You will be deemed to have accepted these terms and conditions and they will apply to you.

We reserve the right to amend these terms and conditions at any time and you should therefore check them each time you make a booking. The terms and conditions which apply to your booking will be those in place on the date that you make your booking and are subject to compliance with applicable law, relevant restrictions or guidelines imposed by Government or local authorities from time to time.

Reservations

You must be at least eighteen (18) years old to make a booking. You must provide your credit or debit card details to pay your booking.

Please check that the details of your booking are complete and accurate before you confirm your booking. We will not be liable for any delay or non-performance if you provide us with incorrect information.

We will confirm our acceptance of your booking by sending you an email to the email address that you provide during the booking process.

If you think that there is a mistake in your booking or if you require any changes to a confirmed booking (including cancelling your booking), please contact us on 0118 378 5657 or email info@venuereading.com.

Room price

When you make a booking request, we'll give you a total price for the rooms and number of nights you've requested. The price you pay is the price quoted to you at the time you make your booking.

Room prices are per room and are inclusive of VAT at the applicable rate at the time of your booking. If the rate of VAT changes between the date of your booking and the date of your stay, we will adjust the rate of VAT that you pay, unless you have already paid for the booking in full before the change in the rate of VAT takes effect.

Meals and other extras including but not limited to drinks and use of the telephone are not included in the room price.

Occupancy

The maximum room occupancy for a room is two adults. If you are travelling with children please let us know your requirements before booking. Rooms are too small to have a cot in the room. Children under 16 must be supervised at all times, and are not permitted to stay in accommodation unless a parent or guardian is also staying in the accommodation.

Paying for your room

You will pay for your accommodation by card in advance of your stay via one of the Reservation Channels. We reserve the right to ask for identification at the time of booking or upon check in.

Please note: the University's bars and cafes do not accept cash payments so please ensure that you have a debit or credit card available if you wish to use these facilities.

Cancellations

Your right to cancel when booking through Venue Reading directly. If the Customer wishes to cancel confirmed room bookings, they should contact the University in writing as soon as possible.

If you cancel your booking less than 10 working days before the first day of your stay, you will not be entitled to a refund and will be charged the full amount due for your planned stay.

Our right to cancel

We may cancel your booking at any time with immediate effect by giving you written notice (which includes email) if:

- you do not pay us when you are required to do so;
- you break the contract between us in any other material way;
- we need to do so in compliance with applicable law, relevant restrictions or guidelines imposed by government or local authorities.

If we cancel your booking where you are at fault, we reserve our legal rights in respect of your breach of contract.

Events outside our control

We may also cancel your booking if an event outside of our control (including but not limited to industrial action, an epidemic or pandemic, explosion, local public health guidance or guidance or direction made by Public Health England or equivalent body, fire, flooding, and failure of power and/or water supplies or emergency evacuation) means that we are unable to make your room available to you. In this case we will contact you to let you know as soon as possible and:

- if you have already paid for your room, we will refund your payment to you.

We will not be liable or responsible for any failure to perform, or delay in performance of, any of our obligations that is caused by an event outside of our control, but we will make reasonable efforts to mitigate any effects.

This does not affect your statutory rights.

Arrival and departure

Rooms are available from 2pm on the arrival date unless as otherwise notified by us in writing prior to your arrival.

Unless as otherwise notified by us in writing prior to your arrival, rooms must be vacated by 10am. Failure to leave your room by this time may result in a late check-out charge which would be equal to the full nightly cost. If you fail to check out on the date confirmed in your booking confirmation, we reserve the right to charge you the full room price for each additional nights' stay.

Expectations of you (and your group)

During your stay with us we expect that you will:

- be respectful to University staff and other guests
- treat your room with respect and alert the halls reception staff to any damage caused by you
- not smoke in your room or anywhere on the premises
- Keep noise to a minimum at all times
- not engage in any threatening or violent behaviour whatsoever
- not engage in any activities in breach of applicable law, relevant restrictions or guidelines imposed by government or local authorities

If you or your group fail to comply with our Expectations, cause damage to The Accommodation, or cause distress or inconvenience to other guests or damage to their property, or you otherwise breach any of these terms and conditions, The University reserves the right to:

- cancel your booking with immediate effect and (if appropriate) require you to leave the premises;
- retain all sums paid by you and/or charge you the full amount of your booking;
- refuse future bookings from you and/or refuse you entry to The Accommodation.
- charge your credit or debit card or invoice you for any damage incurred to your room or building during your stay (including without limitation specialist cleaning), or for any items that are missing when you leave.

The University will not be liable for any refund or compensation in such circumstances.

General

Your information

We respect your privacy and we are committed to protecting your personal data. We will process your personal data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679) and our Privacy Policy, which can be found at <http://www.reading.ac.uk/15/about/about-privacy.aspx>

The contract

This contract is formed when we confirm your booking by email. The contract is between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms.

Your rights

If you are a non-business customer you have certain rights under consumer protection legislation. Nothing in these terms and conditions is intended to affect those rights.

Our liability

We will be responsible to you for foreseeable loss and damage caused by us. If we fail to comply with these terms, we are responsible for loss or damage suffered by you which is a foreseeable result of us breaking this contract or failing to use reasonable care and skill, but we are not responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if either it is obvious that it will happen or if at the time the contract was made, both you and we knew it might happen, for example, if the loss or damage was discussed between us.

We do not exclude or limit in any way our liability to you where it would be unlawful to do so. This includes liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors; for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; for breach of your legal rights in relation to the services including the right to receive services which are as described and supplied with reasonable skill and care.

We shall not be liable and expressly exclude liability to the fullest extent allowed by law damage to, theft and/or loss of your property unless caused by the negligence of the University or its officers, employees or agents.

We shall not be liable and expressly exclude liability to the fullest extent permitted by law for any loss of profit, loss of business, business interruption, or loss of business opportunity.

Applicable law

These terms and conditions, their subject matter and formation (and any non-contractual disputes or claims) are governed by and construed in accordance with English law.

If you are a consumer you and we both agree that the courts of England and Wales will have non-exclusive jurisdiction over any claim arising from, or related to, your booking and/or stay in Accommodation. We retain the right to bring proceedings against you for breach of these terms and conditions in your country of residence or any other relevant country. If you are a resident of Northern Ireland you may also bring proceedings in Northern Ireland, and if you are resident of Scotland, you may also bring proceedings in Scotland.

Severability

If any part of these terms and conditions is deemed invalid, illegal or for any reason unenforceable then that part will be deemed deleted and will not affect the validity and enforceability of the remaining parts. Any failure by us to enforce our rights or remedies under these terms and conditions or otherwise shall not be construed as a waiver by us of those or any other rights or remedies.

All rights not expressly granted in these terms and conditions are reserved.
